Cain And Abel
By Jill Kemp
Illustrated by Richard Gunther

Genesis 4
After God sent Adam and Eve away from the garden of Eden, they had two boys, first Cain and then Abel.
Cain loved to grow vegetables, but it was hard work digging in the hot sun and weeding the garden.
He brought the first of all the vegetables from his garden, as a gift to God.

“I will show God what I can do,” he thought.
Abel looked after the sheep.
He brought the best newborn lamb
as a gift to God.
“Thank you God for everything you give to me,” he prayed.
God saw the love and thankfulness that was in Abel’s heart and God was pleased with the gift Abel gave to Him.
But Cain thought he had done ALL the work himself.
He forgot that everything comes from God.
God wasn’t happy with his attitude.
Cain got angry and jealous, because he thought God should like his gift best. He didn’t have a thankful attitude to God.