I Can See

Mark 10:46

Timaeus and his wife had a lovely baby boy,
they called him Bartimaeus.
The little baby was born blind.
Their little baby would never be able to see.

1

"What do you want?" asked Jesus.
"Jesus I want to be able to see.
I know you make sick people better,
please help me," Bartimaeus said.

He yelled even louder, "JESUS!"
Jesus stopped. "Bring him to me," he said.
Bartimaeus jumped up and he dropped his coat.
People took him over to Jesus.

Little Bartimaeus could hear and he could feel what things were.
He could smell things
but he could not see anything at all.

When he grew up he couldn't go to work.
He just sat by the road with his bowl
and kind people put money in it to buy food.
"Thank you," said Bartimaeus.

3

One day Jesus was coming along the road!
Bartimaeus knew that Jesus could make him see!
"Jesus," he yelled, "Jesus, help me!"
People said "Be quiet, Jesus is too busy to see you."
