

Joseph loved God.
Joseph looked after his family.
God wants us to be kind to everyone,
even if they are not kind to us first.

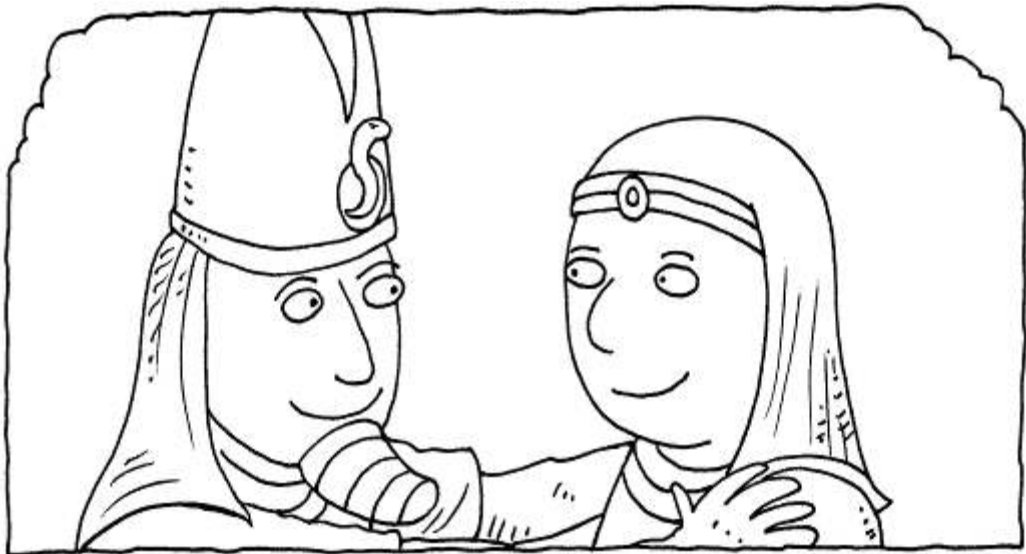

Joseph's brothers were not kind to him.
They sold Joseph to King Pharaoh in Egypt and told his dad, Israel, that a lion had eaten him.
They showed his dad his coloured coat.

In Egypt Joseph worked hard for King Pharaoh.
He was King Pharaoh's best helper.
He knew that God was with him
where ever he was.

Yes! Joseph gave corn to his brothers and some to them to take home to Israel, his dad.
He forgave his brothers for being unkind.

One night King Pharaoh had a dream.
No one could help him understand it.
He sent for Joseph. Joseph asked God to help him understand the dream.

4

God told Joseph, "Tell King Pharaoh to get lots and lots of corn because soon people in other countries won't have enough to feed their families."
