Down On The Farm

By Jill Kemp

Illustrated by Richard Gunther

Arranged and sung by Steve Wiggins
The farmer put on his hat and his gumboots too

pat head pull on boots

"Come on dog get in behind

point thumb back over shoulder

There's lots of work to do.
Feed the hens,
  pook pook pook pook
Feed the pigs,
Oink oink oink oink
Give the cows some hay

Moo

Come on dog get in behind

point thumb back over shoulder

There's work to do today."

5
Open the gate  - open it wide arms wide
Drive the tractor through drive tractor
Stop!

stop sign or put hand out

Remember to shut it after you clap (repeat)

The farmer put on his hat and his gumboots too

pat head pull on boots

“Come on dog get in behind

point thumb back over shoulder

There’s lots of work to do.
Ride the horse

gallop clicking tongue
Move the sheep

baa baa
Mend the fence today

Come on dog, get in behind, there’s work to do today.”
Open the gate - open it wide
arms wide
Drive the tractor through
drive tractor
Stop!
stop sign
Remember to shut it after you clap (repeat)
The farmer took off his hat and his gumboots too pat head  pull off boots

He whistled the dog, gave him a pat, pat head

“Here’s a bone for you

“Here’s a bone for you
We’ve fed the hens, pook pook pook Fed the pigs, oink oink oink
The cows have had their hay - Moo
Now it's time for us to rest
We've worked hard today!
Now it's time for us to rest
We've worked hard today!