Matthew 4 verse 9

Lesson

Matthew follows Jesus.
Matthew 9.

- Book: Matthew Follows Jesus by Jill Kemp web site.
Show pictures.

This is a story about a clever, rich man called Matthew

He had an important job

 Collecting money for the king.

 He was a tax collector.

When people got money from working or selling something they had to give some to the king.

 Your Dad or Mum pay taxes too.

It helps to make roads, build hospitals etc.

- * People didn't like paying the money – sometimes they didn't have enough to look after their family.
 - * Mathew was rich but being rich and clever didn't make Matthew happy inside.
 - * Matthew was working when Jesus came past.
 - * “Matthew Follow me.” Jesus said.
 - * What would Matthew do?
 - * Would he leave all the money and follow Jesus?
 - * Yes!
 - * Following Jesus made Matthew happy.
 - * Matthew wrote all the things he saw Jesus do and the things he heard Jesus say, into a book – like a scroll – that's what they used in the old days.
 - * Mary, Jesus mother told Matthew about when Jesus was born too. He wrote it down too.
- Now Matthew's words are in the Bible so we can know exactly what Jesus said and did!

Use props act out story – working, selling (produce etc) paying tax from the money – basic concept.

*Doll :-Matthew

*Bags of money

* Table

*Several dolls or children with two coins each.

Talk about what their job is:

“I sell vegetables, bags of corn, coats I make, etc etc”

Show Matthew how much money you made – two coins. Take one coin for taxes. Protest – “but then I won’t have enough to feed my family” etc.

Taxes have to be paid first!

Matthew has lots of money.

He is not happy inside.

Jesus comes past

Matthew, come and follow me.”

Look at all the money – what will Matthew do?

Here is an opportunity to sow the thought that money doesn’t make us happy.

Following Jesus makes us happy.

- Show a scroll (make one) that Matthew would have written what he learnt about Jesus.
- Show where Matthew’s words are in the Bible.

A good heart listens

A good heart obeys God’s words – Doing what is good and right, being honest and kind – like Jesus.
