

Timothy Loves God.

By Jill Kemp
Illustrated by Richard Gunther

Timothy loved to visit his grandmother.
His grandmother was kind and good.
She loved God and prayed that Timothy would to grow up to love God too.

Even when Timothy was a small boy,
she told him about living for Jesus and that God had a special job for Timothy to do when he was big.

Timothy's mother loved Jesus too.
She talked to Timothy about God every day.
Timothy's love for God grew strong.
He wanted to do what was good and right.

“God said, in the Bible, that He would send His Son to earth,” his mother said.

“I believe Jesus is God’s Son.”

Timothy believed too. They prayed together.

Timothy's mother and grandmother saw how much Timothy loved God's word
and how kind he was to other people.
Timothy loved to tell people about Jesus.

When he grew up, Timothy was Paul the Teacher's helper.
Paul wrote letters to Timothy.
The letters are in the Bible.

Timothy told people how believing in Jesus
was the way to heaven.
This was the special job God had for Timothy.
We can tell other people about Jesus, too.
