

When Jesus Comes Again

By Jill Kemp

Illustrated by Richard Gunther

When Jesus came to earth the first time
He was born in a stable and had a bed of hay.
He died on a cross for us.

Jesus promised he will come back again
and be King of all the world.
Jesus will be a good king!
He will make the world a safe place.

When Jesus comes again
there will be no more storms or floods.
The world will be beautiful and perfect
just as God first made it.

All the animals will be friendly.
They won't eat each other.
Lions and lambs will live together and we won't need to be scared of wild animals.

No one will get sick.
No one will ever get old or die.
There will be enough food and water for everyone and the world will be clean, green and beautiful.

When Jesus comes again He said that anyone who loved Him and who had died,
will come alive again when the trumpet blows!
We will see family and friends again!

People everywhere will be kind and friendly and never fight.
But best of all
we will see Jesus!
