When a worried father asked Jesus to go to his house to heal his son, the boy became well that exact moment.

“What time did you get better?” he asked his son.

“It was at 1 o’clock when I suddenly felt alright. I got out of my bed and I was feeling completely well.” said the boy.

The man was so happy.

An important man had a very, very sick son.

He heard that Jesus was in the next town and went to ask him to come to his house, to make his boy better.

“Go back home, your son is well again. Just believe what I say.”

It was 1 o’clock when Jesus said that.

When he got to his house he saw his son waiting at the door!

He was not sick any more!

The man was so happy to see his boy.

The man hurried home.

He believed that Jesus really had made his son better and that what Jesus had told him was true.

When he got to his house he saw his son waiting at the door!

He was not sick any more!

The man was so happy to see his boy.

An important man had a very, very sick son.

He heard that Jesus was in the next town and went to ask him to come to his house, to make his boy better.

“Go back home, your son is well again. Just believe what I say.”

It was 1 o’clock when Jesus said that.

When he got to his house he saw his son waiting at the door!

He was not sick any more!

The man was so happy to see his boy.

An important man had a very, very sick son.

He heard that Jesus was in the next town and went to ask him to come to his house, to make his boy better.

“Go back home, your son is well again. Just believe what I say.”

It was 1 o’clock when Jesus said that.

When he got to his house he saw his son waiting at the door!

He was not sick any more!

The man was so happy to see his boy.

An important man had a very, very sick son.

He heard that Jesus was in the next town and went to ask him to come to his house, to make his boy better.

“Go back home, your son is well again. Just believe what I say.”

It was 1 o’clock when Jesus said that.

When he got to his house he saw his son waiting at the door!

He was not sick any more!

The man was so happy to see his boy.

An important man had a very, very sick son.

He heard that Jesus was in the next town and went to ask him to come to his house, to make his boy better.

“Go back home, your son is well again. Just believe what I say.”

It was 1 o’clock when Jesus said that.

When he got to his house he saw his son waiting at the door!

He was not sick any more!

The man was so happy to see his boy.

An important man had a very, very sick son.

He heard that Jesus was in the next town and went to ask him to come to his house, to make his boy better.

“Go back home, your son is well again. Just believe what I say.”

It was 1 o’clock when Jesus said that.

When he got to his house he saw his son waiting at the door!

He was not sick any more!

The man was so happy to see his boy.

An important man had a very, very sick son.

He heard that Jesus was in the next town and went to ask him to come to his house, to make his boy better.

“Go back home, your son is well again. Just believe what I say.”

It was 1 o’clock when Jesus said that.

When he got to his house he saw his son waiting at the door!

He was not sick any more!

The man was so happy to see his boy.

An important man had a very, very sick son.

He heard that Jesus was in the next town and went to ask him to come to his house, to make his boy better.

“Go back home, your son is well again. Just believe what I say.”

It was 1 o’clock when Jesus said that.

When he got to his house he saw his son waiting at the door!

He was not sick any more!

The man was so happy to see his boy.

An important man had a very, very sick son.

He heard that Jesus was in the next town and went to ask him to come to his house, to make his boy better.

“Go back home, your son is well again. Just believe what I say.”

It was 1 o’clock when Jesus said that.

When he got to his house he saw his son waiting at the door!

He was not sick any more!

The man was so happy to see his boy.

An important man had a very, very sick son.

He heard that Jesus was in the next town and went to ask him to come to his house, to make his boy better.

“Go back home, your son is well again. Just believe what I say.”

It was 1 o’clock when Jesus said that.

When he got to his house he saw his son waiting at the door!

He was not sick any more!

The man was so happy to see his boy.

An important man had a very, very sick son.

He heard that Jesus was in the next town and went to ask him to come to his house, to make his boy better.

“Go back home, your son is well again. Just believe what I say.”

It was 1 o’clock when Jesus said that.

When he got to his house he saw his son waiting at the door!

He was not sick any more!

The man was so happy to see his boy.