

They remembered God' promise.
The Bible tells us
that God did everything
He said he would do.

They remembered God' promise.
The Bible tells us
that God did everything
He said he would do.

God's Promise To Abram

By Jill Kemp
Illustrated by Richard Gunther

God's Promise To Abram

By Jill Kemp
Illustrated by Richard Gunther

A long time ago, God
made a special promise to Abram.
“Look at all the stars.
There are too many to count.

2

Abraham waited and waited.
Sarah, his wife, was very old
when they had a baby boy!
God had not forgotten his promise!

7

A long time ago, God
made a special promise to Abram.
“Look at all the stars.
There are too many to count.

2

Abraham waited and waited.
Sarah, his wife, was very old
when they had a baby boy!
God had not forgotten his promise!

7

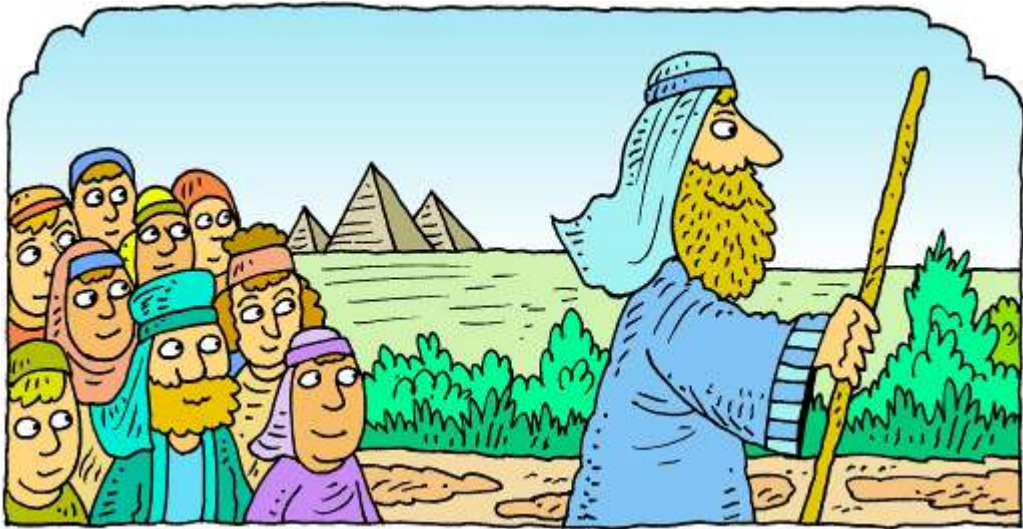

Then God would send them
to live in their own country
that He would give them.
God gave him a new name, "Abraham."

6

You will have a big family,
with lots of children.
There will be
too many to count."

3

Then God would send them
to live in their own country
that He would give them.
God gave him a new name, "Abraham."

6

You will have a big family,
with lots of children.
There will be
too many to count."

3

“How could this happen,” thought Abram.
“I don’t even have one child of my own.”
But Abram believed God would do
just as he had promised.

4

God told Abram
that his family would be
servants in another country,
for four hundred long years.

5

“How could this happen,” thought Abram.
“I don’t even have one child of my own.”
But Abram believed God would do
just as he had promised.

4

And God told Abram
that his family would be
servants in another country,
for four hundred long years.

5