

The next day there were no worms!
God looked after the children of Israel
when he sent bread from heaven.
God looks after you too!

Bread From Heaven

By Jill Kemp

Illustrated by Richard Gunther

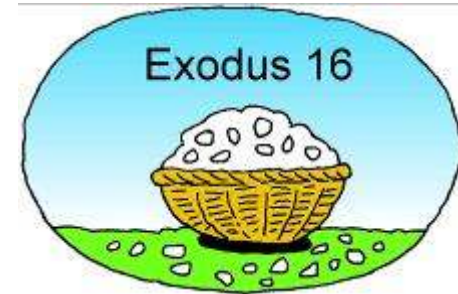

The next day there were no worms!
God looked after the children of Israel
when he sent bread from heaven.
God looks after you too!

Bread From Heaven

By Jill Kemp

Illustrated by Richard Gunther

The children of Israel followed Moses into the desert, but there was nothing to eat. "We should have stayed in Egypt," they said.

2

God told Moses, "Today get enough manna for two days. Tomorrow is a day to rest. It is a day for thanking God."

7

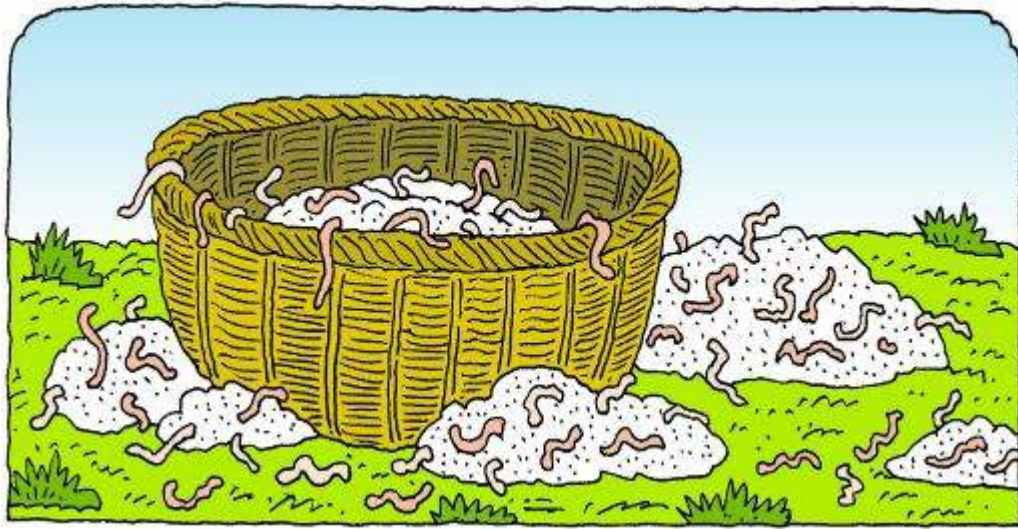

The children of Israel followed Moses into the desert, but there was nothing to eat. "We should have stayed in Egypt," they said.

2

God told Moses, "Today get enough manna for two days. Tomorrow is a day to rest. It is a day for thanking God."

7

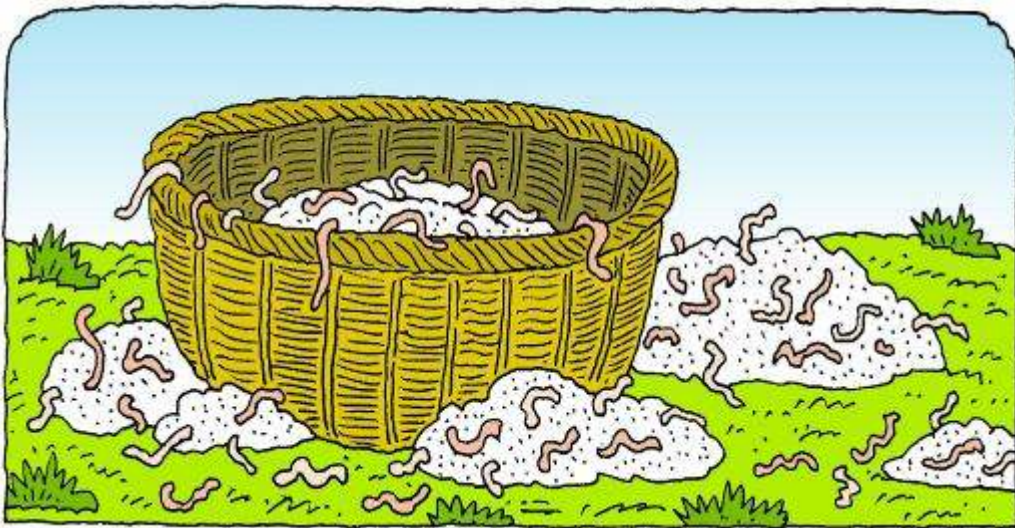

God said, "Only take enough for one day."
But some people forgot.
Next morning the manna left over
was full of worms.

6

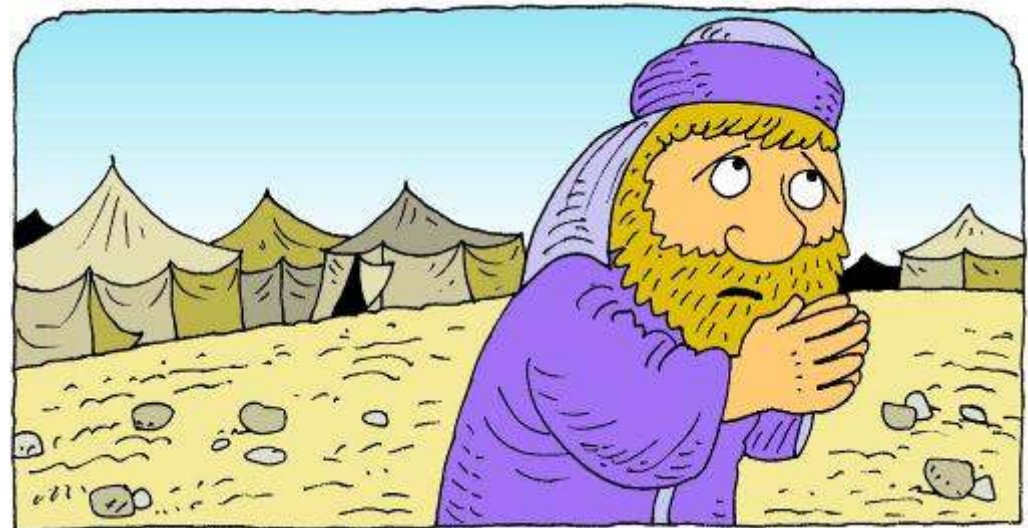

Everyone was hungry.
Moses asked God to help them.
"I will send bread from heaven,
for the people to eat," God said.

3

God said, "Only take enough for one day."
But some people forgot.
Next morning the manna left over
was full of worms.

6

Everyone was hungry.
Moses asked God to help them.
"I will send bread from heaven,
for the people to eat," God said.

3

The next morning the ground was covered with small, round things.
“Bread from heaven!” they said,
“God has heard our prayers!”

4

God has sent manna for us to eat.”
They filled their baskets
and took the manna home to cook.
It tasted like honey biscuits.

5

The next morning,
the ground was covered with something small and round.
“Bread from heaven!” they said,

4

“God has sent manna for us to eat.”
It tasted like honey biscuits.
They filled their baskets
and took the manna home to cook.

5