If God was able to design such an amazing animal, then Job knew that God could help him too!

Job was sick and he didn't think God could help him. One day God spoke to Job and told him how He alone had created a huge animal called Behemoth.

Behemoth was the biggest animal that God ever created. It was bigger than a whale or an elephant and hunters couldn't kill it with a sharp sword.

God said that He made its legs to be powerful, with bones as strong as iron, that did not break. People were scared if this mighty animal.

He told Job that this enormous animal ate grass, just like a cow and it liked to lie down under the shade of a tree.
