

God looked after Elijah
in a special way.
God will look after you, too.

8

God looked after Elijah
in a special way.
God will look after you, too.

8

Elijah And The Ravens

By Jill Kemp
Illustrated by Richard Gunther

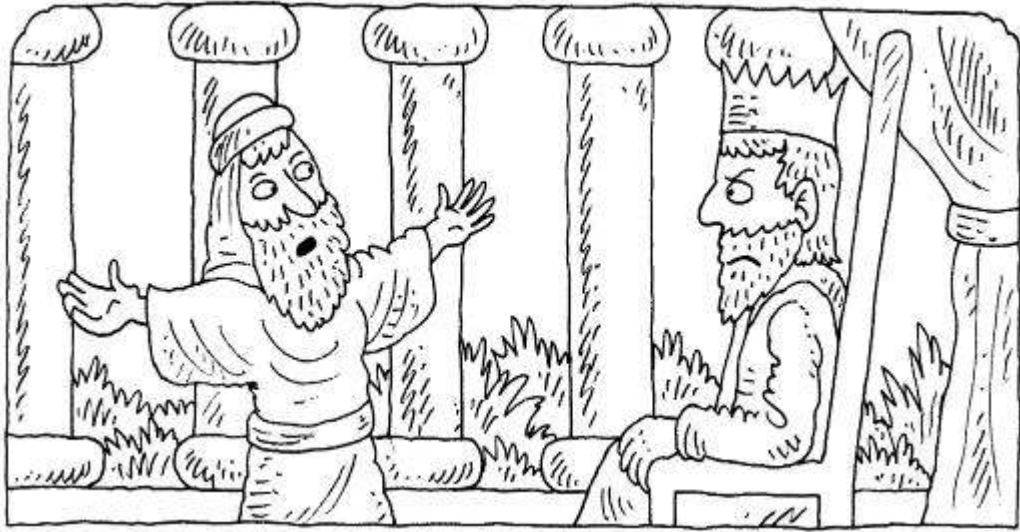

1

Elijah And The Ravens

By Jill Kemp
Illustrated by Richard Gunther

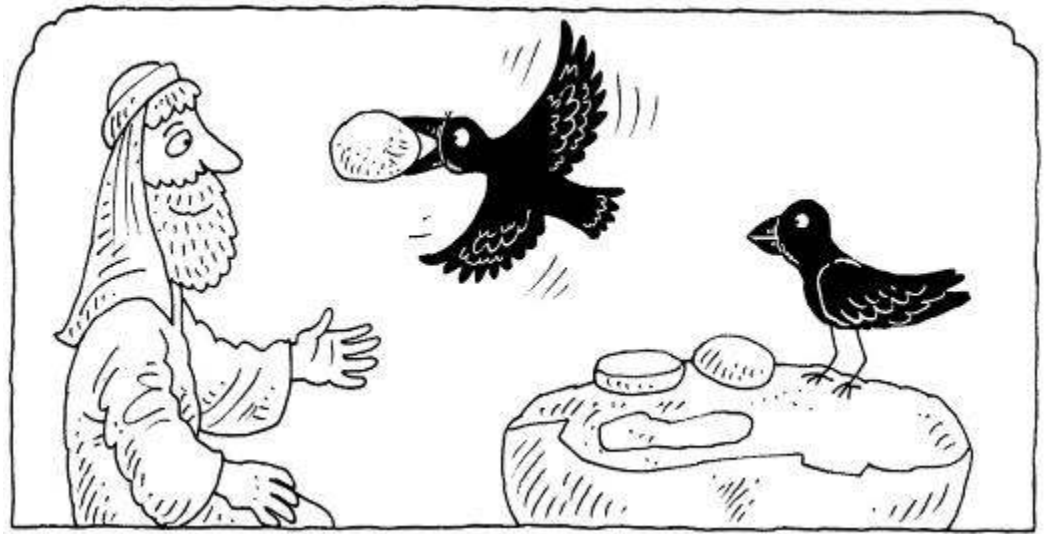

1

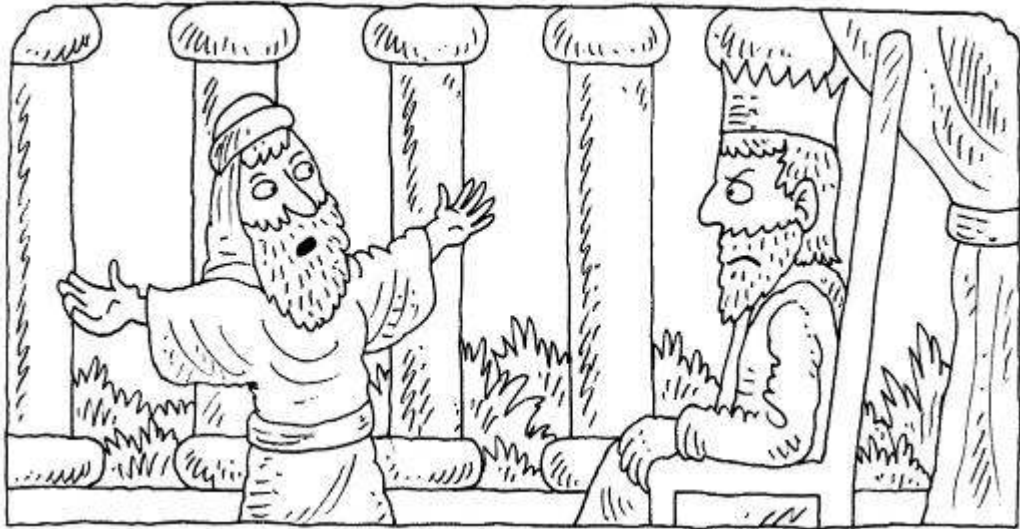

God sent Elijah, the man of God,
to see bad King Ahab.
“It will not rain again
until God says so,” Elijah told the king.

2

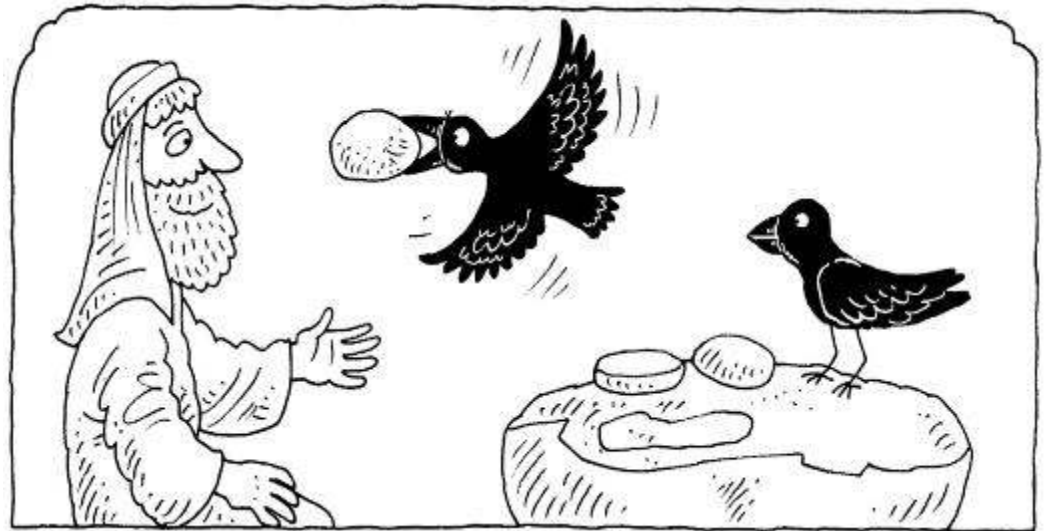

And late in the afternoon,
just before the sun sets,
the ravens came back again,
with food for Elijah.

7

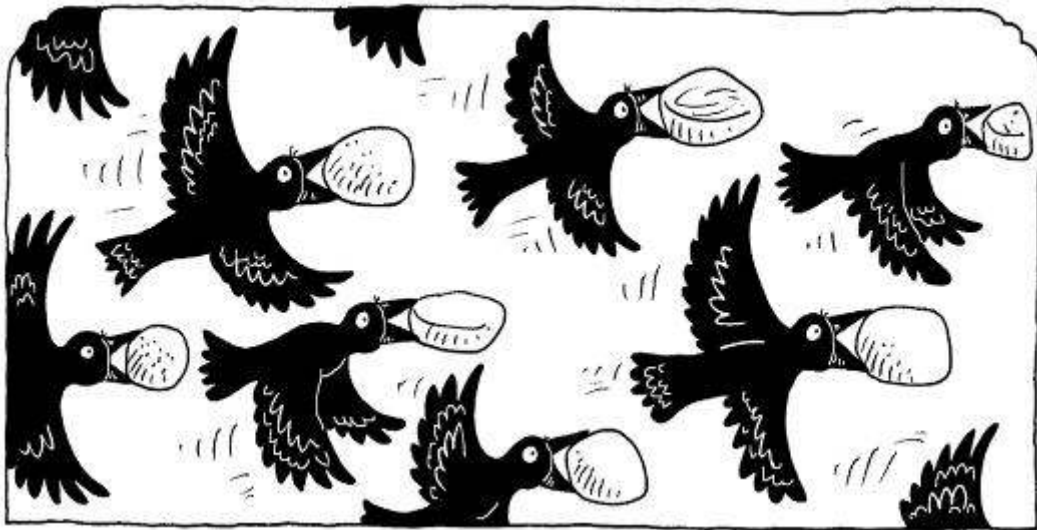

God sent Elijah, the man of God,
to see bad King Ahab.
“It will not rain again
until God says so,” Elijah told the king.

2

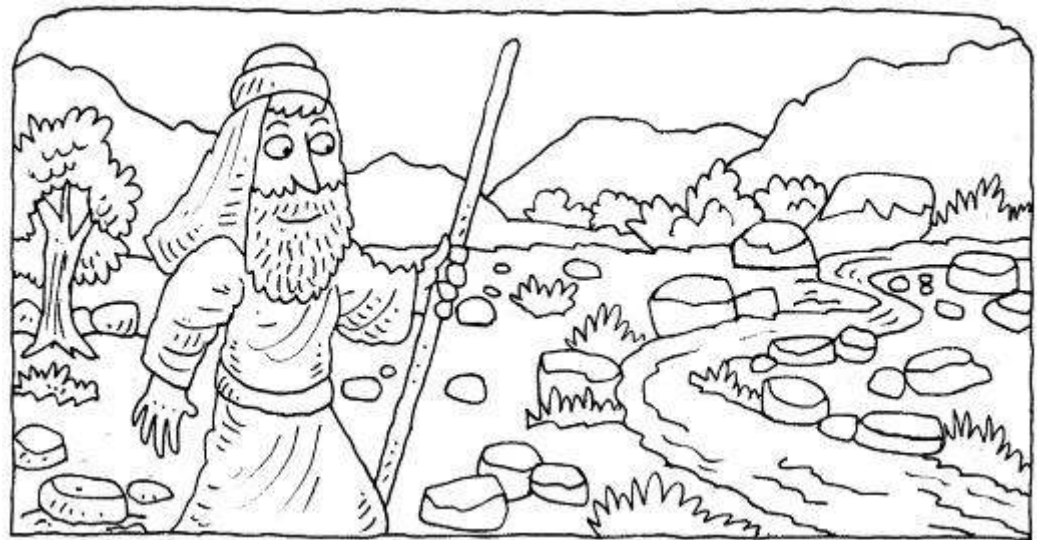

And late in the afternoon,
just before the sun sets,
the ravens came back again,
with food for Elijah.

7

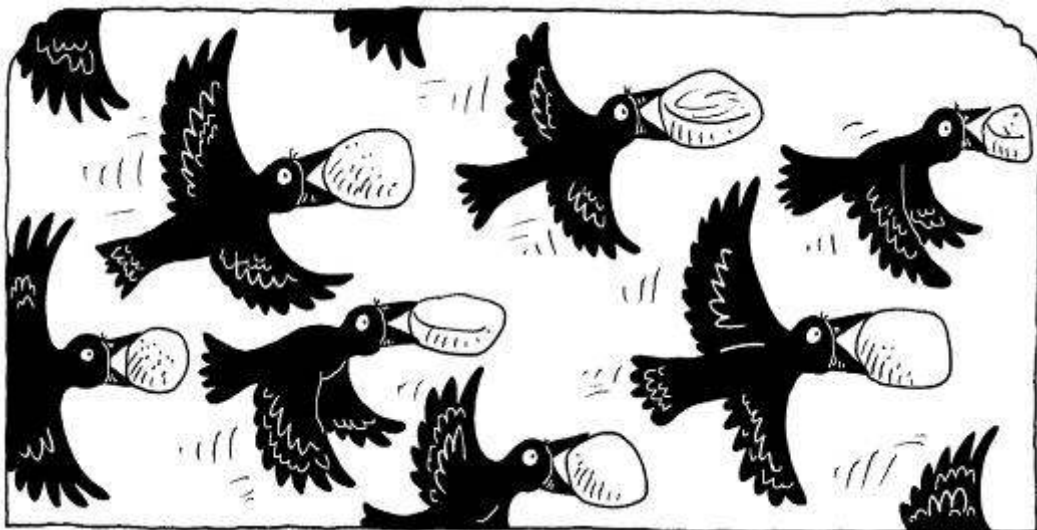

“Ravens will bring you
bread and meat
every morning,
to feed you,” God said.

6

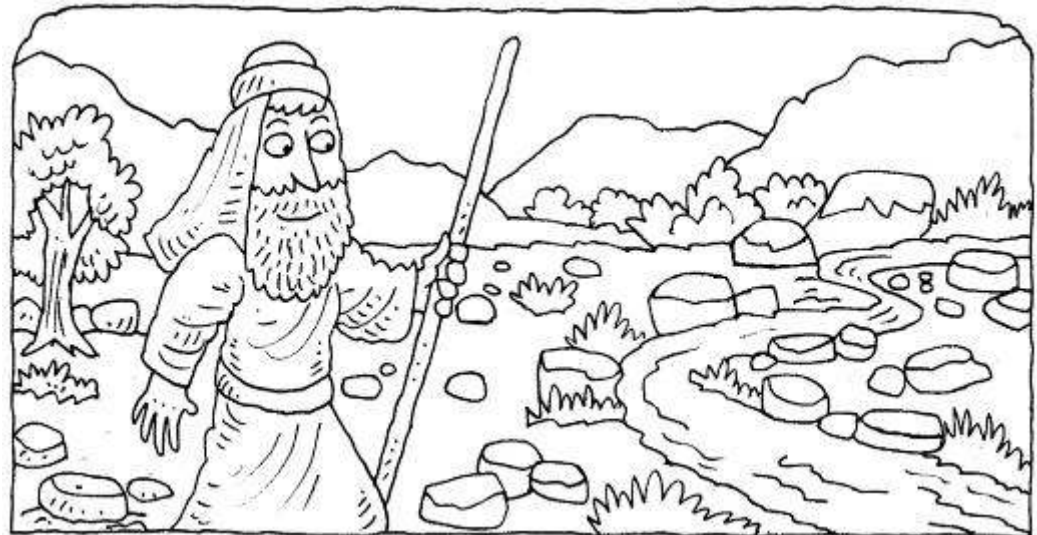

Soon everyone was thirsty.
But God looked after Elijah.
He sent him far away,
to live by a stony stream.

3

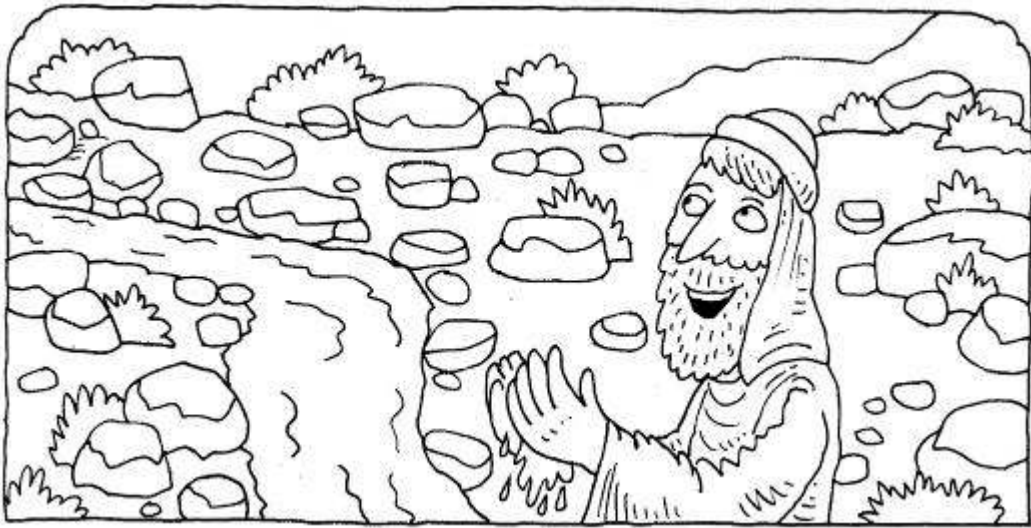

“Ravens will bring you
bread and meat
every morning,
to feed you,” God said.

6

Soon everyone was thirsty.
But God looked after Elijah.
He sent him far away,
to live by a stony stream.

3

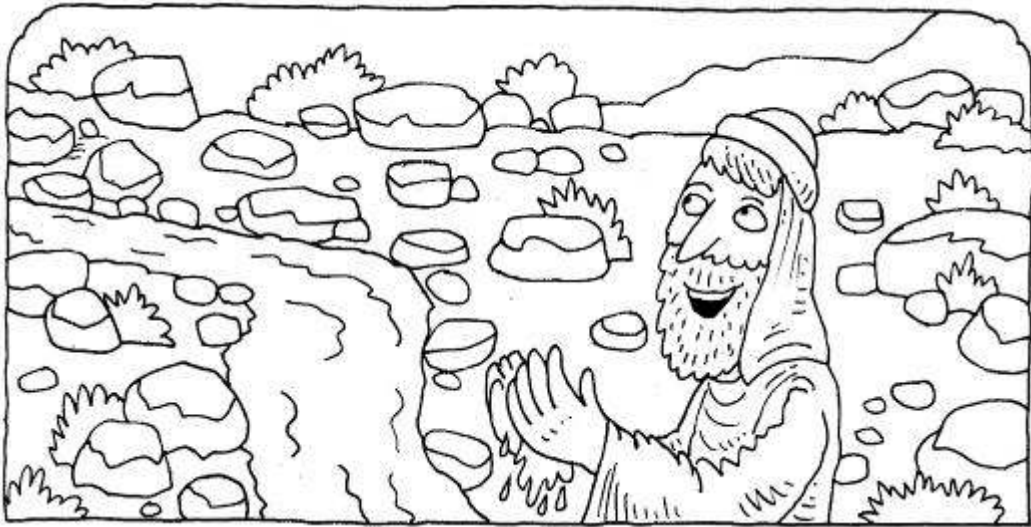

“Wait here until
I send rain again,” said God.
“Here you will have
water to drink.”

4

But Elijah was very hungry
and prayed to God.
God looked after Elijah.
He sent raven birds to feed him!

5

“Wait here until
I send rain again,” said God.
“Here you will have
water to drink.”

4

But Elijah was very hungry
and prayed to God.
God looked after Elijah.
He sent raven birds to feed him!

5