

But when Esau and Jacob met,
Esau was so pleased to see his brother
that all their old arguments were forgotten
and Jacob was forgiven for tricking his brother.

Jacob Is Forgiven By Esau

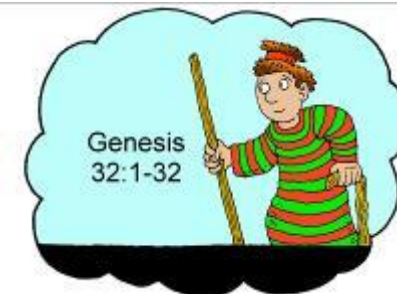

By Jill Kemp
Illustrated by Richard Gunther

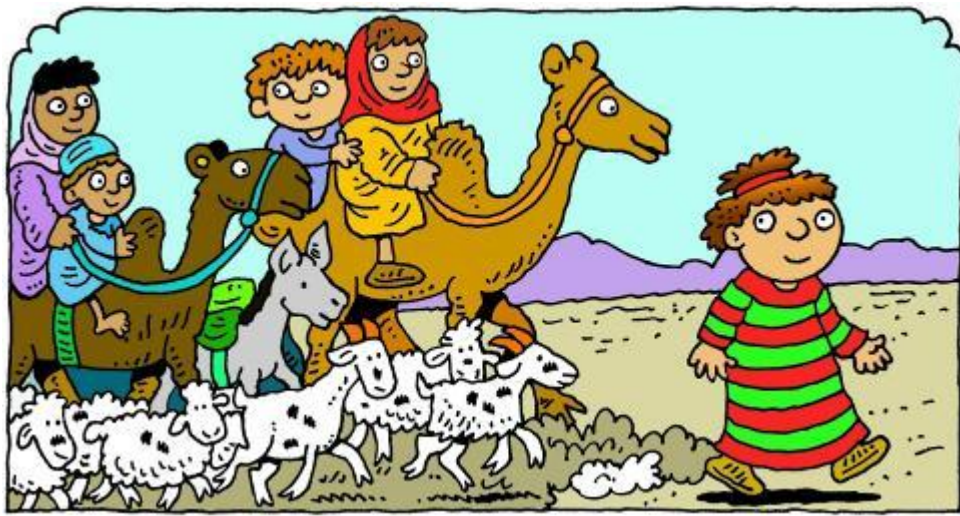

But when Esau and Jacob met,
Esau was so pleased to see his brother
that all their old arguments were forgotten
and Jacob was forgiven for tricking his brother.

Jacob Is Forgiven By Esau

By Jill Kemp
Illustrated by Richard Gunther

Jacob was excited to be taking his family to his home land after being away almost 20 years. He prayed that his brother Esau had forgiven him and that he was no longer angry.

2

He divided his family into two groups. "If my brother attacks the first group then the second group will have a chance to escape," he thought.

7

Jacob was excited to be taking his family to his home land after being away almost 20 years. He prayed that his brother Esau had forgiven him and that he was no longer angry.

2

He divided his family into two groups. "If my brother attacks the first group then the second group will have a chance to escape," he thought.

Jacob sent his servants with several herds of animals as presents for Esau - camels, goats, sheep, cows, and donkeys, all with their babies.

6

Just to be sure that his family would be safe, he sent a messenger ahead to let his brother Esau know that he was coming and waited anxiously for the messenger to return.

3

Jacob sent his servants with several herds of animals as presents for Esau - camels, goats, sheep, cows, and donkeys, all with their babies.

6

Just to be sure that his family would be safe, he sent a messenger ahead to let his brother Esau know that he was coming and waited anxiously for the messenger to return.

3

The servant delivered the message to Esau.
When he came back he told Jacob that his brother was coming to meet him with 400 men!
Jacob was very scared and prayed to God.

4

“God of my fathers Abraham and Isaac,
you told me to return home and you would
bless me. I know I don’t deserve your kindness, but I pray that you will keep us safe from my brother.”

5

The servant delivered the message to Esau.
When he came back he told Jacob that his brother was coming to meet him with 400 men!
Jacob was very scared and prayed to God.

4

“God of my fathers Abraham and Isaac,
you told me to return home and you would
bless me. I know I don’t deserve your kindness, but I pray that you will keep us safe from my brother.”

5