When Pharaoh saw how strong his servants,
the Hebrew men, had become
he made a rule to kill all the baby boys
before they grew stronger than his army.

2

Pharaohs' daughter and her servants found
the Hebrew baby and felt sorry for him, because he was hungry and crying. "Shall I get a Hebrew mother to feed him?" asked Miriam.

“I will make a basket of bulrushes to float him down the river,” she said.
“God please keep him safe,” she prayed.
She sent the baby’s sister, Miriam, to watch him.

Jochebed loved her new little baby boy. She prayed God would keep her baby safe, so he could grow up to be a man of God. She knew that God would hear her prayer.

Jochebed hid her baby boy from the soldiers, but as he got bigger he was harder to hide. He began to cry loudly and soon the soldiers would hear him.
