

The shepherds and the innkeeper, were the first to see baby Jesus, the promised Saviour. He was wrapped in soft linen and lying a manger, just as the angel had said.

8

The shepherds and the innkeeper, were the first to see baby Jesus, the promised Saviour. He was wrapped in soft linen and lying a manger, just as the angel had said.

8

The Innkeeper At Bethlehem

By Jill Kemp

Illustrated by Richard Gunther

Joseph and Mary went to Bethlehem, where Joseph had been born, to write their names in the Tax Book, The little town was crowded with visitors.

1

The Innkeeper At Bethlehem

By Jill Kemp

Illustrated by Richard Gunther

Joseph and Mary went to Bethlehem, where Joseph had been born, to write their names in the Tax Book, The little town was crowded with visitors.

1

Joseph found an inn. He knocked on the door and it opened quickly.
"No room," the innkeeper said.
Joseph and Mary walked wearily on.

2

Late that night, shepherds knocked on the inn door.
"We are looking for a baby in a manger," they said.
"The angel told us He is the Saviour, Christ the Lord."
The innkeeper took the shepherds to the stable.

7

Joseph found an inn. He knocked on the door and it opened quickly.
"No room," the innkeeper said.
Joseph and Mary walked wearily on.

2

Late that night, shepherds knocked on the inn door.
"We are looking for a baby in a manger," they said.
"The angel told us He is the Saviour, Christ the Lord."
The innkeeper took the shepherds to the stable.

7

That night, baby Jesus was born.
Mary wrapped him in soft linen
and Joseph made baby Jesus
a bed, in manger box of hay.

6

They knocked at the next inn door.
"No room," said the innkeeper.
"I don't think you will find an empty bed in Bethlehem tonight!"

3

That night, baby Jesus was born.
Mary wrapped him in soft linen
and Joseph made baby Jesus
a bed, in manger box of hay.

6

They knocked at the next inn door.
"No room," said the innkeeper.
"I don't think you will find an empty bed in Bethlehem tonight!"

3

The innkeeper saw Mary and felt sorry for her. "The stable is warm and dry. There is hay and water. It isn't much, but it's all I can give you," he said.

4

Joseph looked at the animal's shelter. It wasn't where he had ever imagined that God's promised Saviour would be born - in a stable!

5

The innkeeper saw Mary and felt sorry for her. "The stable is warm and dry. There is hay and water. It isn't much, but it's all I can give you," he said.

4

Joseph looked at the animal's shelter. It wasn't where he had ever imagined that God's promised Saviour would be born - in a stable!

5