

Down On The Farm

By Jill Kemp

Illustrated by Richard Gunther

Arranged and sung by Steve Wiggins

The farmer put on his hat and his gumboots too

pat head pull on boots

“ Come on dog get in behind

point thumb back over shoulder

There ' s lots of work to do.

Feed the hens,
pook pook pook pook

Feed the pigs,
Oink oink oink oink

Give the cows some hay
Moo
Come on dog get in behind
point thumb back over shoulder
There 's work to do today. "

Open the gate - open it wide arms wide
Drive the tractor through drive tractor

Stop!

stop sign or put hand out

Remember to shut it after you

clap (repeat)

The farmer put on his hat and his gumboots too

pat head pull on boots

“ Come on dog get in behind

point thumb back over shoulder

There 's lots of work to do.

Ride the horse gallop clicking tongue

Move the sheep baa baa

Mend the fence today

hammer

Come on dog, get in behind, there ' s work to do today. ”

Open the gate - open it wide
arms wide
Drive the tractor through
drive tractor

Stop! stop sign
Remember to shut it after you
clap (repeat)

The farmer took off his hat and his gumboots too pat head pull off boots

He whistled the dog, gave him a pat, pat head

“ Here ’ s a bone for you

We 've fed the hens, pook pook pook Fed the pigs, oink oink oink
The cows have had their hay - Moo

Now it ' s time for us to rest
We ' ve worked hard today!
Now it ' s time for us to rest
We ' ve worked hard today! ”