Give all your worries to Jesus because
He cares for you.
1 Peter chapter 5 verse 7.

When I am worried it feels like I am carrying around rocks in a back pack.
My worries get so heavy.

Like the time my Grandad had a fall and the ambulance came.
I worried a lot about that.
Into my back pack goes a big, heavy rock.

3

Sometimes I worry about little things, like “Will my freckles ever go away?”
Into my back pack goes a little rock.

I worry about BIG things too,
like scary things I see
on the screen and in the news.
Into my back pack goes a bigger rock.

Into my back pack goes a bigger rock.

After a while my worries get so heavy that I get tired of carrying them all the time.
My back pack is so full of rocks.

So, I went and talked to my friend Jesus and told Him every single worry I had. Jesus carries my worries, because He cares for me.
