

The more I read about Jesus
the more I want to be like Him.
Working hard will make me strong and people will trust me to do a good job.

Deuteronomy 12:28

Do what is good and right.

Jesus liked to help Joseph and he learned how to be a good worker by watching and following instructions.

2

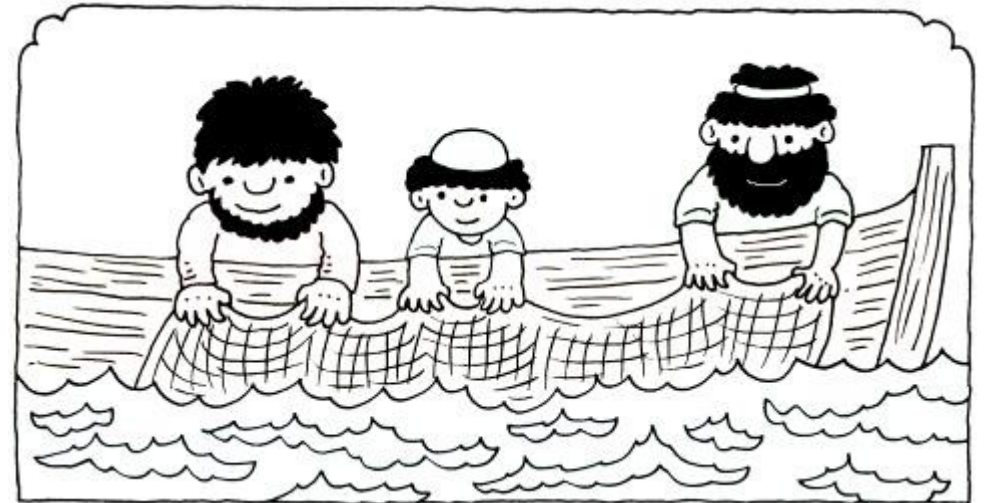

When he went fishing Jesus would have rolled up his sleeves, pulled in the heavy net, gutted fish, helped push the boat and cleaned the net.

Jesus loved looking after the sheep and they followed him.
It was a good time to talk to His heavenly father too.

6

Sometimes Jesus got tired, just like any little boy, but working hard made him strong and it is easier when everyone works together.

Jesus helped his mother Mary.
Some jobs were boring, but Jesus did whatever he was asked to do, without complaining.

Jesus worked hard and did a good job,
even when no one was looking.
He got tired just like any other little boy,
but he kept working until the job was done.
