

“Even in the bank my money would grow,”
said the boss. “Go away. You are a lazy man.”
Now, I want to do my best with what God has given to me.
I want to hear Jesus to say, “Well done.”

while he was away in another country.
“Take this money to make more money for me,” he said.

1

One man got one gold coin,
another man, two gold coins
and the best worker got five gold coins.
“Use these well until I get back,” said the boss.

2

“Well done,” said the boss. “You are good workers.
Now you can be the boss of others.”
The lazy man said, “I hid the gold coin because it isn’t fair if you get money I work for.”

Their boss came back to see what they had done with his money.
The man with five coins had made five more!
The man with two coins had made two more!

6

The best, worker, with five coins,
bought and sold things with the money
and made five more coins
for his boss.

The best, worker, with five coins,
bought and sold things with the money
and made five more coins
for his boss.

3

The man who had two coins,
also used them well.
He made two more coins to give to his boss when he came back.

But the lazy man, with one gold coin,
dug a hole and buried it in the garden
where it was no use to anyone.
“ I will leave it here until my boss comes back,” he thought.
