

The 12 disciples were: Simon Peter, Andrew, James and John. Philip, Bartholomew, Thomas and Matthew. James the son of Alphaeus, Thaddeus, Simon and Judas Iscariot

The 12 disciples were: Simon Peter, Andrew, James and John. Philip, Bartholomew, Thomas and Matthew. James the son of Alphaeus, Thaddeus, Simon and Judas Iscariot

TWELVE DISCIPLES FOLLOW JESUS

By Jill Kemp
Illustrated by Richard Gunther

"Disciple" means "student."

TWELVE DISCIPLES FOLLOW JESUS

By Jill Kemp
Illustrated by Richard Gunther

"Disciple" means "student."

Jesus had 12 special followers called disciples.
The first four he found were fishermen.
Simon (Peter) and Andrew left their fishing
and their families and followed Jesus.

2

Last of all, Jesus chose Judas Iscariot. He loved money more than he loved God and he was the disciple who betrayed Jesus. Matthew,
John and Peter wrote some of the Bible.

7

Jesus had 12 special followers called disciples.
The first four he found were fishermen.
Simon (Peter) and Andrew left their fishing
and their families and followed Jesus.

2

Last of all, Jesus chose Judas Iscariot. He loved money more than he loved God and he was the disciple who betrayed Jesus. Matthew,
John and Peter wrote some of the Bible

7

Thomas came when Jesus called him.
He and James also left everything behind
when they went and followed Jesus.
The disciples were Jesus' helpers.

6

James and John were on the sea of Galilee
in their boat, fishing with their father Zebedee,
when Jesus called them to follow him.
Straight away, they chose to go.

3

Thomas came when Jesus called him.
He and James also left everything behind
when they went and followed Jesus.
The disciples were Jesus' helpers.

6

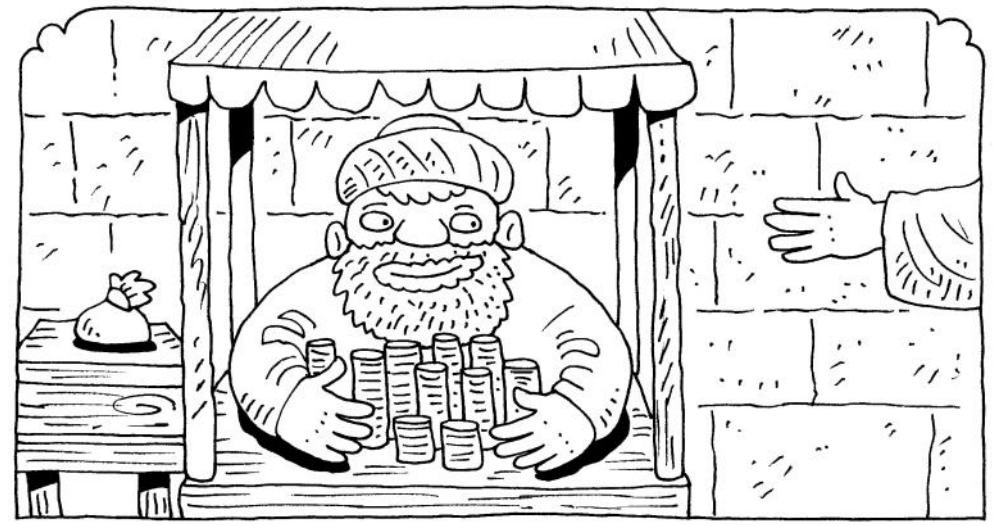

James and John were on the sea of Galilee
in their boat, fishing with their father Zebedee,
when Jesus called them to follow him.
Straight away, they chose to go.

3

Philip also came from Galilee. He and Bartholomew became disciples, too. They saw the miracles Jesus did and listened to everything he taught them.

4

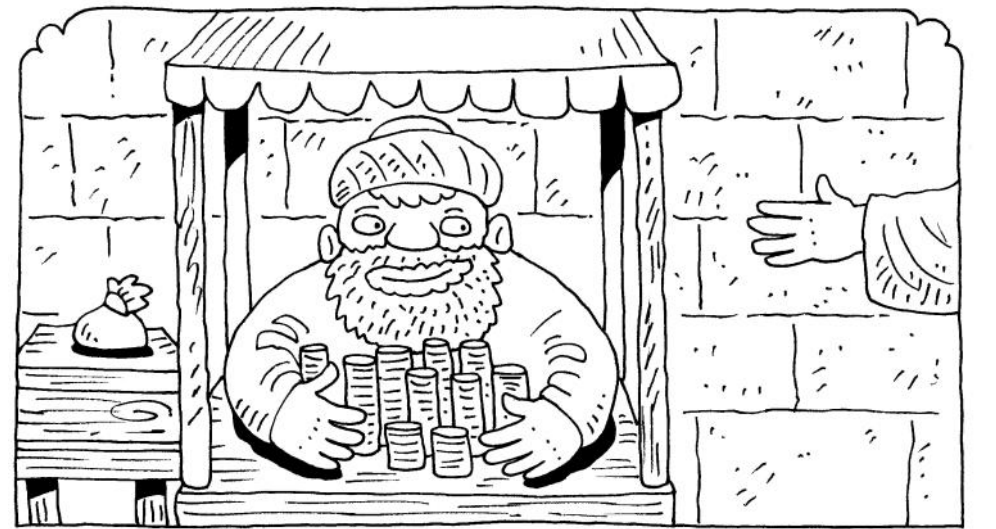

Matthew was a tax collector. He collected money from people, but left his important job and all his money, to become a disciple of Jesus.

5

Philip also came from Galilee. He and Bartholomew became disciples, too. They saw the miracles Jesus did and listened to everything he taught them.

4

Matthew was a tax collector. He collected money from people, but left his important job and all his money, to become a disciple of Jesus.

5