Parable Of The Two Builders

Jesus told stories, called, 'Parables', to the people who came to hear Him. The stories helped them to understand the message in his words.

1

Crowds of people came to hear Jesus. He said to them, "People who hear my words, are like two kinds of builders."

2

But the heavy rain and the rushing water did not move the house on the rock. The wise builder knew his house was safe."

7

The water rushed past the house
that was built on the ground.
All the soil washed away.
That house fell down.

“One was a wise builder. He looked for a rock to build a house on.
He wanted the house to be strong.
Building on top of a rock was hard work.

The other builder didn't care about making his house strong. It was easier to build straight on the ground. He was in a hurry to get finished.

4

A big storm came. It rained and rained. The water got deeper and deeper and crashed against the houses.
