

“My true followers
serve others,” said Jesus.
“Then wash all of me,” said Peter.
“I want to follow you with all my heart.”

8

Washing Feet

By Jill Kemp
Illustrated by Richard Gunther

1

“My true followers
serve others,” said Jesus.
“Then wash all of me,” said Peter.
“I want to follow you with all my heart.”

8

Washing Feet

By Jill Kemp
Illustrated by Richard Gunther

1

After Jesus arrived at Jerusalem on the donkey, he and his friends ate together in a room upstairs.

2

But Jesus was teaching his friends something important. He wanted them to know how to really care for each other.

7

After Jesus arrived at Jerusalem on the donkey, he and his friends ate together in a room upstairs.

2

But Jesus was teaching his friends something important. He wanted them to know how to really care for each other.

7

“That is a servant’s job.
I will never let you wash my feet!
I saw how the people honored you.
It just isn’t right.”

6

When they had finished,
Jesus got a towel
and a bowl of water.
“I am going to wash your feet,” he said.

3

“That is a servant’s job.
I will never let you wash my feet!
I saw how the people honored you.
It just isn’t right.”

6

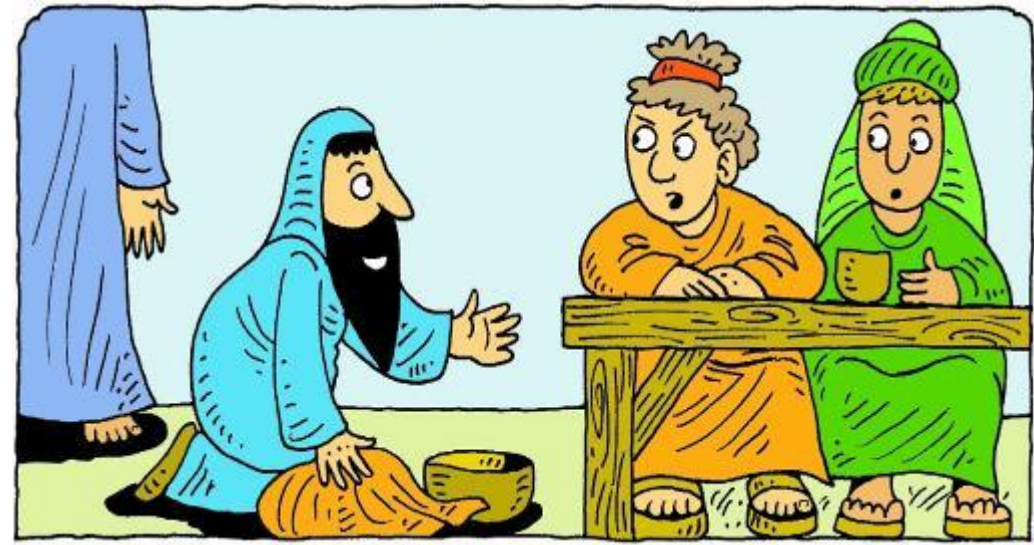

When they had finished,
Jesus got a towel
and a bowl of water.
“I am going to wash your feet,” he said.

3

Jesus knelt down on the ground
and gently washed
and dried the feet
of each of his friends.

4

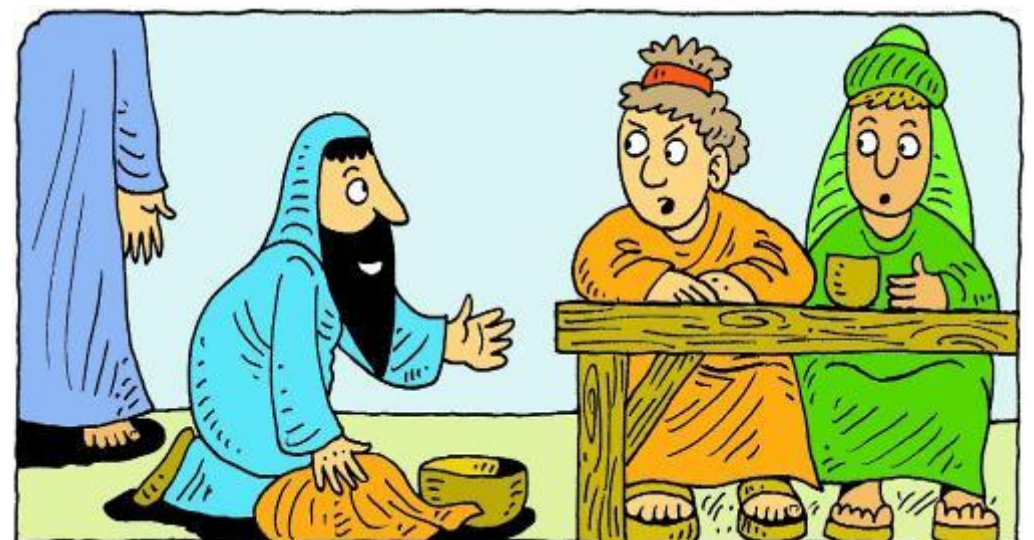

“Peter, it is your turn,” said Jesus.
“Take off your shoes.
You are next.”
“You are not washing MY feet!” said Peter.

5

Jesus knelt down on the ground
and gently washed
and dried the feet
of each of his friends.

4

“Peter, it is your turn,” said Jesus.
“Take off your shoes.
You are next.”
“You are not washing MY feet!” said Peter.

5