

PALM Sunday - Jesus rides a donkey

Print Free: www.lambsongs.co.nz

By Jill Kemp

Illustrated by Richard Gunther

On Palm Sunday we remember when Jesus rode a donkey to the Temple at Jerusalem. People were excited because they thought he was going to be their king and save them.

Jesus was going to the temple in Jerusalem. He sent two helpers to get a little donkey that was tied up beside its mother, in the town nearby.

They found the little donkey where Jesus had said. They told the man who owned the donkey that Jesus needed it to go to Jerusalem and took the little donkey back to him.

They put their coats over donkey's back, for Jesus to sit on. Jesus sat on the donkey's back. He was going to the temple in Jerusalem.

Lots of people came along the road. They were so happy to see Jesus! People put their coats on the road for little donkey to walk on.

Some people picked palm branches from palm trees growing by the road. They waved the branches as Jesus past by.

Everyone was happy to see Jesus. "Hosanna to the King," they shouted as Jesus went up the road into the city of Jerusalem.

When they got there Jesus got off the little donkey and went into the big temple to pray to God.