

DANIEL in the lions' den

Print Free: www.lambsongs.co.nz

By Jill Kemp

Illustrated by Richard Gunther

Daniel chapter 6

Daniel loved God with all his heart.
When the King made a rule,
Daniel had to choose either to obey the King, or to serve the one true God.

Daniel loved God with all his heart.
He prayed to God lots of times every day.
Daniel did what was good and right.
He worked for the king of Babylon.

The king saw that Daniel worked hard.
He always did what was good and right.
The King made Daniel the boss
But the other helpers wanted to be boss.

The king's other helpers got angry.
They tricked the king into making a rule.
Anyone who prayed to God
would be thrown in the lions den!

Daniel loved God with all his heart.
He prayed to God lots of times every day.
Daniel did what was good and right.
He worked for the king of Babylon.

Daniel had broken the king's rules.
The king was very sad.
He knew he had been tricked.
"His God will look after him," said the King.

Daniel was thrown into the lions' den.
He was not afraid. He just prayed to God.
The king could not sleep. He was so sad.
In the morning he looked in the lions' den.

The king saw that Daniel was safe!
God's angel had shut the lions' mouths.
The King made a new rule.
'Everyone must love God and pray only to him.'