Ka whakarongo a Hamiora.

So, Samuel listened.

Ka karanga a TeAtua I tōna ingoa

God called his name

ka korero TeAtua ki aia.

and God talked to him.

Ka whakarongo a Hamiora ki ngā korero o

Samuel listened for God's words

Te Atua tino aroha ia ki te Atua te wairua ora.

and loved God all his life.

Pirangi au ki te whakarongo ki Te Atua hoki.

I want to listen to God too.

Kaore he tamariki a Hannah.
Hannah didn't have any children.
Ka inoi atu a Hannah
Hannah had prayed and Ki Te Atua he pēpi mōna.
asked God for a baby.
Oatitia e Hannah
She had made a promise
ma TeAtua hei hoatu kia Hamiora.
to give Samuel to God,
note mea ko pakeke ia.
when was he was big enough.

Ka rongo ano a Hamiora tōna ingoa!
He heard his name again!
Kātahi ka mōiho a Eli
Then Eli knew
Ko TeAtua Ke kei te karanga ki a Hamiora.
God was calling Samuel.
Ka kī a Eli "I muri atu I tēnei
"Next time," Eli said,
Te rongo koe I to ingoa anō ki mai
"If you hear you name again say
"Kei te whakarongo au" ka korero Te Atua ki a koe.
"I am listening" and God will speak to you.

Ka rongo ano ia tōna ingoa!
He heard his name again!
Ko Eli tonu tēnei e karanga ana kia Hamiora.
This time it must be Eli calling him.
Kei te ngenge kei te pukuriri a Eli.
Eli was tired and grumpy.
“Kāore! ko au kei te karanga ki a koe.
"No! I did not call you.
E hoki ki to moenga me moe koe.
Get into bed and go to sleep.
Kaua e whākāoho!” ia hau.
Stop waking me up.” he said.

La Hamiora e moe ana
While Samuel was sleeping
I tētahi po takoto ana I runga tāna moenga
in his bed one night
Ka karanga Te Atua te ingoa o Hamiora.
God called Samuel's name.
Ka maranga a Hamiora
Samuel sat up
Ka titiro haere ia.
“Ko Eli pea tērā kei te karanga mai ki ahau. “
