Needing a fresh, fun action song with meaning, for the Sunday School class she was teaching, Annie Spiers, of England, wrote this amazing song when she was aged 14 years old, in 5 minutes in her bedroom. The Royalties from this song have funded underprivileged children through music school and hugely influenced their lives for good. Annie Spiers generously donated it to this album, Royalty free. I personally know of three parents who have come to faith through the impact of this children's song.
